“ To the Hand & Borden families, my thoughts and prayers are with you all at this difficult time. But we have to rejoice because we know she is having a reunion with her precious parents! Nothing to compare the 'The Sugar Hill Reunion' !!! Your family has been dear to us during the years at Westside.
I continue to keep you all in my prayers with much love!

“ I am sitting here trying to write a memory I have with aunt Gail and there are so many I do not know what to say. From Sunday afternoons at grandma's house, to spending the night at her house. There was never a dull moment with her. I remember Wednesday nights sitting with Gail and grandma while Sandra went to church. Between grandma loosing her teeth and Gail loosing her glasses, that were later found on the top of her head, there was always something to laugh about. She had a smile like no other. She was the most selfless person I know. She always put others before herself. No matter what she wanted to do she would put it on hold to do for others especially her girls. When she talked about her girls you could see the pride in her eyes. The only thing she loved as much as her girls were her grand babies, she had so much love and pride in her eyes when she talked about them it would make you proud of them. I can hear her laughing now saying "Where are my glasses at now?" Then putting her hand on her head and laughing because she found them. She had a laugh that could make you laugh even if you did not know what she was laughing about. Gail your battle is over, you can rest now. Your life gave us memories too beautiful too forget.
