“Deliberately shorn of all that makes for mere effect, Isak (Bud) stands out as an elemental figure, the symbol of Man at his best, face to face with Nature and life. There is no greater human character—reverently said—in the Bible itself.”

“ Dear Streit family,

I used to share a cup of coffee, regularly, with Mr. Streit and other friends at Jack's in Sheffield. Some of these men, who have now passed, were Leon Alsbrooks, James Pride, Luthor Hobson, Don Johnston, Zeke Hightower, Julius Morrison, John McCollum, Jackie Bratton and others. Their school years, athletic accomplishments, war efforts, careers and family well discussed [many times].

I was the youngest of this group and found out I had been asked to join with them as my legs were still young enough to get a pot of coffee for their refills!

I have a few old Streit Milk bottles. Mr. Streit could tell the age of each based on the phone number or font. His face would light up when I would bring a different one.

I attended school with Charlie Ray Foote.

I am so very sorry for your loss and may God bless you during this time,

“ Mr. Streit was always a smiling face when greeting me at FBC. He was so happy to see the people, give them a bulletin, and a firm handshake - always loved that about him!

The family - all the family - are in my thoughts and prayers, with precious memories of times gone by. May God comfort you in your family's loss.

“ I am Charlie Owens. Daddy, Jim Owens, worked for Streit Milk Company for 17 years.

I have very fond memories of the Streit family. First, I was named after Charlie Streit. I can remember the Streits having a picnic at their home on Wilson Lake. Then, many years after that, I was working as a Alabama State Trooper and saw Bud at his business on 3 Mile Lane. I pulled up to the door as Bud was coming out and we talked for several minutes and I mentioned the Streit Milk Co. Clocks that was in classrooms in the Sheffield schools. I said to Bud, if you have any I would love to purchase one from you. He said, Charlie, follow me home. We went to his home on Wilson Lake and seeing the home brought the previous memory to mind. We went into the house and he called out to Jean and said come here, I want you to see someone. That to was a proud moment for me as I had not seem Jean for so many years.

Bud went to another room and came out with a clock that he gave me. That clock is still one of my finest possessions.

The last time I saw Bud was 8-10 months ago. We were both in Dr. Walkers office. Bud was in a wheel chair and I walked up to him and a smile was on both our faces. He remembered me still. We talked a few minutes, keeping the nurse waiting to take Bud to get treated.

The Owens Family truly love the whole Streit family.
