“ All of us at Publix Muscle Shoals were saddened by the news of Mr. George's passing. We have just found out. Some of us would have come to the funeral. He was so sweet and giving. He made Chex mix and oatmeal cookies for us and he didn't have to! They were so good! We shared great conversations with him. He was a fountain of information! He will be truly missed.

“ Carol and Sybil, our thoughts and prayers are with you and we are here for anything you may need. George was such a kind, thoughtful, giving man. We always enjoyed being with him, whether it be celebrating New Year's Eve, his birthday, pool party, or chats when driving by or in one of our yards. Enjoying his famous oatmeal cookies will be missed and learning how much time it takes for perfect popcorn will be remembered. Heaven has gained a now healthy hearted man for which we are thankful but our sweet neighbor and friend will be greatly missed and we are truly saddened. Love to all! Sarah, Barry, and Brandt .
