

Jack Eugene Zeedar

July 1, 1942 - December 29, 2019

Jack E. Zeedar, 77 passed away December 29, 2019, after an extended illness.

Jack was born July 1, 1942 to his parents James and Marian Zeedar. He lived in Youngsville, PA for most of his life but resided in Leighton, Alabama.

Jack literally was a Jack of all trades, he was in the Air Force, drove semi-trucks for many years and retired from a steel plant. He enjoyed tinkering on things such as CBs, computers, and his '79 Ford Ranchero. He also attended New Lagrange Missionary Baptist Church until his health started failing.

He was preceded in death by his son, Michael "Mikey" Zeedar; his parents, James and Marian Zeedar; brother, Jerry Zeedar; and sister, Joann Zeedar.

Jack is survived by his daughter, Corrina Jeffreys (Klegg); his son, JJ Zeedar (Pam); granddaughters, Kelsie Bunt (Tyler), and Delaney and Lilly Zeedar, all from Leighton, AL; his brother, Jim Zeedar, from Clarksville, TN; and nieces and nephews.

The family will have a private service, respecting Jacks wishes.

A special thank you to Southern Healthcare, especially Brittany and Tammy, for taking such good care of our loved one.

“ Jack and I worked together at National Forge Co. Jack was always so sweet to me. He drew my name in the new cement on the finishing dept floor and drew a heart under my name. We stayed in touch as we were friends. Fond memories.

“ Jackie was my cousin. We connected a few years ago through the internet. My fondest memory of Jackie was when he was 16. He had a pure white horse with blue eyes named “White Cloud”. Jackie had him outfitted with a black saddle and black bridle and reins. White Cloud would stand perfectly still on the dirt road I lived on. Jackie would start running and when his foot hit the stirrup and he grabbed the horn, that crazy horse would take off like his tail was on fire. It was so fun to watch him with that horse.

I truly will miss Jackie.

“ I lived just down the road, Brown Hill Rd., from Jack & his family for my entire school days. I have very fond memories of them all. Jack had a great sense of humor & we had a wonderful friendship in our younger days.
