“ I was honored to work with Jackie in the land surveying business. He was my mentor and a good friend. I talked with him a few months ago and it was so good to reconnect and share old memories. He was truly a man of integrity and a person who cared for others. I'm so sorry for JP and his family. You have suffered a great loss.

“ I'm so very sorry for your loss, J.P. I knew your mom & recall how sweet & doting she was. And although I never met your dad, from knowing his one son, I'm sure I have a good idea of what a great man he was too! Having worked with him for years will make your missing him more intense, I'm sure.

Again, I'm so sorry for you & the others who knew & loved your dad.

“ Our Uncle Jackie was such a precious, sincere, humble & generous man! I personally have such fond memories of our times together as part of a lg., loving family. Times of you playing Santa, and the way you stepped in once granddaddy & granny passed away, keeping the Stewart Family Reunions going. The countless times you've been the financial inspiration behind helping several members of the family out when several of us have been struggling for one reason, or another. Such a blessing in so many ways, to so many family, friends & likely strangers too!

Not being able to call you, or connect w/you via FB just doesn't seem real right now. The last message you left me on FB when I asked how you were, you gave me a Thumbs Up symbol. Just like you to always be positive, smiling, laughing & loving! Oh how we ALL miss you already! So thankful that this isn't goodbye, just a little bit of a parting, until we are reunited again around the throne, to worship & praise Jesus together for eternity!

J.P. & family, our love, prayers & thoughts are with y'all!

“ I used to work with Jackie doing land surveys and i remember he always paid me way more than i was worth in those days. My dad thought Jackie was the best all around person and the very best at his profession. they don't make them like Jackie Stewart anymore. You will be missed and most of all remembered. Bless this family as they go through this tough time Tim
