“ I just learned of Mrs. Greenhill’s passing. I am sorry to hear she passed. She was the most kindest person I have ever known, I loved going to church with her every Sunday and Wednesday. I used to take her when I worked for elder care. Again I am sorry to hear about her passing.

“ Jim and Linda, I am so sorry to hear this. However, I can not help but think of what a great reunion she must be having with her loved ones and her Savior. I never met you Mom, but I wished I had, for I would have enjoyed telling her how wonderful I think you and Linda are. Being a Mother I know how she felt about her boy. Jim, let her memories flood your soul. I love you and Linda and will keep you close to my heart during this time.

“ I became friends with Mrs Greenhill at the time I started grad school at Florence in the spring of 1963 and for some unknown reason we became friends. From that time until now, we remained friends and she is the only person I know who sent handwritten letters to me and my family until a few years ago at Christmas. I always loved hearing from her and knowing what she was doing in school and what Jim was doing. She always wanted to keep up with my wife and sons as well. The friendship continued and for good reason. Twenty-eight years ago, quite suddenly, my wife died, and I needed someone. I had to call "Greenhill" as I always called her. She was the one person who lifted me up in prayer when she knew I needed it the most. She also did something for me that helped so much. I was trying to learn how to be a single parent to two sons, one in college and one still in high school, and some days I would get home from school and would have a very nice card from her and a note that just let me know that she was lifting me up and thinking of me. God knew the days when I needed those cards. We talked on the phone and continued our Christmas messages until just a few years ago and when she left Harris Street, I sent her messages through Jim. I am sorry that I have not seen her in a few years, but I have continued to think of her and the many good laughs we had in Wesleyan Annex while in grad school and thereafter. God has gained my guardian angel. I feel sure that I am not the only person who she blessed the way she did me. There must be many others who are thinking about times when could have had something better to do than go to school, but then we would have missed a lot of social life. Blessings to Jim and family. Love Lifted Me
