“ A year tomorrow with you gone. I am still in disbelief that I don't have you to call when we need to share stories...laugh and cry. I still don't understand why you didnt tell me what was going on. I would have stopped life to be with you. I love you Sue. I will never have a friendship such as ours. RIP my friend and continue to watch over me from above. I always looked to you for guidance in my life.

“ Sue and I laughed. When we were together, on the phone.....didn't matter, we loved to laugh.....except one time. Well, I laughed and laughed. Sue and Don came to Utah to visit Ervin, Mark and I. We decided to take them for a ride on the "Loop Road" on the La Sal Mountains. Now, Kris, you have been out here to Moab and have seen our La Sal Mountains. They are MOUNTAINS! Please forgive me for being a bit crass, but that is just part of the story. We are about halfway up the Mt. when Mr. Don has to go pee. There are only trees, bushes and "down over the edge." He chose "Down over the edge" and it was the steep top edge of a deep canyon. Not a big deal.....until he got out and Miss Sue saw how high we were! She hit the floorboard, curled up in a ball and screeched!!!! Bless her heart, she was terrified! Not one thing we could do about it!! She refused to get up off the floorboard until we got down off of the mountain! I felt bad for her, but I couldn't help but laugh, after about 10 minutes of her "telling" us how horrible we were to do that to her. Took us about 35-40 minutes to get her out of the mountains and on the flats. She still loved me, even after that! And we eventually both laughed over it. Oh, how I am going to miss my dearest, closest to my heart Friend. Ah, My SueBee, I will always love you! Ruthie

“ Sue my Ms SusieQ...never in a million years did I think the last time I saw you would truly be the last time.. I can still feel the hug I can still hear the I love you...I can still see your smile the bright eyes...I wish had known..if only ...I miss you so much it just puts my stomach in knots.. I have cried days when I didn't think I had any more tears but they just flow again...there are so many many things I want to tell you Sue...Megan had her 3rd child last yr..this one being a girl Ella ...I would never wish for you to stay here hurting as you did but I have to say I miss you so much and wish things were different. I'm going to find where you are resting and I'm going to bring a blanket lay down and talk away...I know you will hear me cuz I don't seem to have an "inside" voice...I love you Sue I respected everything that you stood for, the person you were.
