“ I have nothing but fond memories of being in school with William. He was always well-liked and popular. He was also very helpful thru his work at the utilities department for all those years. I'm sorry to read of his passing and send sympathy to all his family and loved ones.

“ William was, from all appearances, a happy man who was dedicated to his God, his family and his community. I never saw William without a smile and a kind word. He worked hard, played hard and made positive impacts on everyone he came in contact with. Rest in Peace, my friend
